It's an omaki!

Since the anime began, letters from fans, small children, and moms have increased. As they often write me, they become fans after turning on the TV, and watching an episode by chance. I really feel that the power of TV is amazing. Even I have a number of books that I started buying after I found out about them from TV. It's nice to be able to light-heartedly catch the eyes of people regardless of age or gender. Becoming known and liked by many people...

Hey, lucky Haru-chan!

Speaking of TV shows, I like

April when all the new shows start, and I often watch them. I calmly think, "With the cherry blossoms, ah, Spring is here."
